

Distracted Driving – Falling Asleep at the Wheel

This was a student travelling back to school in Montana who fell asleep. The vehicle struck the end of the guardrail travelled through the right headlight, the engine compartment, firewall, glove box, passenger seat, rear seat and exited out the driver's side rear. 120Ft of rail threaded through the vehicle. No passengers – no injuries.

Will you be so lucky?