

Electrical Service Panels

No authorized person working on service panel.

What 2 critical things are missing in this picture?

What does OSHA require for making the panel “safe”?

What is your company safety policy/practice for this?