

Ladder Safety – Base Setup 1

Rubber feet installed on an extension ladder is by design to prevent ladders from slipping out when in use.

Ladders should be resting on firm/level surfaces.

Would this ladder which is resting on a concrete pad and assorted debris be more likely to move with the rubber feet placed out of action?

Discuss your company ladder use policy and how it applies.