

Supervisor News - Utility Location

We all know that it is required to have utilities located whenever you dig.

Having that knowledge and using it effectively may be two different things altogether. Hence this scene...

Discuss the obvious - what should have been done and what the potential consequences could be for the contractor, employees, customer, job costs, insurance, future business.....employee and public safety.